

"Apathy & indifference to public affairs only results in the tyranny of evil..."

Today, our world is being hijacked by a relatively small group of globalist elites who want us to think they are all-powerful and larger than life. In reality, like the Wizard of OZ, they are nothing more than pathetic little con men and frauds. They control events and trends through their puppets which they manipulate using various levers of power. They especially use the highly controlled mainstream media which they own and control in order to propagate their deceptive message with all its intimidating "special effects" for social engineering. Their secret plans are seeking to force a "New World Order" onto the entire planet and they are very close to completing their goals.

"You can avoid reality, but you cannot avoid the consequences of reality."

It is becoming increasingly difficult to avoid the storm clouds that are surrounding us all. Like it or not, we cannot run and hide from the current events of our day.

In this up to date book, the author exposes the shadowy figures behind the NWO. Once the metaphorical curtain is pulled back, it quickly becomes clear to all good people how devious the elite and their plans really are and how sane people can and must stop the madness before it is too late.

Here you will find a brief history of the NWO, its main organizations, strategies, and goals. You will learn how together we can stop the little wizards in their tracks and turn things around to make this world a better place.

You will never be in the dark again! This book is written for a wide range of readers. It serves as a roadmap for beginners as well as an advanced guidebook by providing additional references leading to a deeper understanding of the many complex aspects of the New World Order. Included are over 300 specially selected recommended titles.

After decades of adventurous travels and readings, the author felt this was the right time to share much of what he has learned in this fresh concise one volume presentation.

It is important to be inspired and strengthened in the defense of freedom. That is the ultimate goal of this book. Good people must choose to take a clear stand in opposition to the global elites who are seeking to bring on their planned tyranny described as the New World Order. This book should prove helpful and provide inspiration to the many good people around the world who cherish freedom, national sovereignty, historic family values, faith in God, sound economic principles, personal creativity and entrepreneurship, quality health, a clean and safe environment, peace and a brighter future for us all!

FOREWORD

"Men often stumble over the Truth, but most pick themselves up and hurry on as if nothing had happened."
(Sir Winston Churchill)

"Those who do not take an interest in public affairs are doomed to be ruled by evil men" - PLATO - 300 B.C.

WE KNOW OF NO OTHER VOLUME of its kind to compare with the one before us. Some startling suggestions have been made in this new book, and we guarantee that the reader will be compelled and charmed, and must be, by the wit and eloquence, the force and fire of every page of this groundbreaking work. CODEWORD BARBÊLÔN is a work of stunning geopolitical revelations. It presents an array of facts that reveal a daring but subtle plan for seizing of global power—a compelling portrait of the future, and a most extraordinary account of international power and intrigue.

"Good historians," wrote Horace Walpole, "are the most scarce of all writers, and no wonder! A good style is not very common; thorough information is still rare; and if these meet, what a chance that impartiality should be added to them!" P.D. Stuart's work possesses all of these qualities.

Consisting of 48 page-turning chapters, with hundreds of footnotes and references, Codeword Barbêlôn covers a vast period of history, from the second and third centuries to the present day. Spatially, the work spans three continents, and focuses on Europe and North America and the hidden influence of secret societies on that continent. It encompasses, within its asides, many other countries too. Indeed, reading Codeword Barbêlôn, one cannot help but feel as if he were travelling in H. G. Wells' time machine, finding himself sometimes at the City of Rome in the 16th Century, at other times in Bavarian Germany in the 18th Century, yet at other times in the political intrigues of North America in the 19th, 20th and 21st Centuries.

Using his favourite technique, P.D. Stuart holds his judgments, and his readers, in suspense by offering the reader a range of options in the interpretation of an event—through fixing multiple layers of insinuation, innuendo, and hidden meaning; and by his coupling of contrasting facts; then explaining such antitheses.

P.D. Stuart identifies the role played by some of the major personalities in the history of the secret societies, from Jacques de Molay to Ignatius Loyola; from Adam Weishaupt to Adolf Hitler; from Albert Pike to Cecil Rhodes; from Abraham Lincoln to recent presidents of the United States of America. In doing so he uncovers a plot so sinister, that in the words of ex-FBI Director and founder, J. Edgar Hoover: "The individual... coming face-to-face with a

A WORK OF STUNNING REVELATIONS AND OF EXTRAORDINARY INSIGHT. More, it is a work of great scholarship. As has become his hallmark, P.D. Stuart writes in the most clear, precise and compelling manner. This author must now be given the credit as one of the most exact thinkers who have graced this generation, possessing—to a degree that is almost inconceivable in an age like our own, of loose thinking and slapdash reasoning—the power of following through his convictions to their logical conclusions.

P.D. Stuart asserts that we are living under what has been called “The greatest recession to sweep the world and to shake up all nations!” In April of 2009, the world heard the official announcement of the New World Order by the leaders at the G20 summit. The focus of this summit was on what has been called “the deepest post-World War II recession!”

The recession is predicted to result in the loss of “50-100 million jobs... across the world.” The United Nations has even warned of spreading violence and anarchy, global dislocations, hunger and disease, to such an extent that economic instability is now regarded by the British secret service, MI6, as more of a danger to our world than terrorism!

But is all this economic chaos merely the result of thoughtless financial deregulation by governments and the unscrupulous actions of the banking and financial cartels? Or might there be more to all of this than meets the eye? Could there be a master-mind behind it all?

There is a prophecy in the book of Revelation that speaks of the creation of a New World Order and a one-world financial system that will control who can buy or sell, so that they “shall cause all, both small and great,...to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads. And that no man may buy or sell, save he that have the mark, or the name of the beast...” (Rev. 13:16-17).

In this compelling sequel to Book 1 of Codeword Barbêlôn, P.D. Stuart reveals Babylon (Barbêlôn, a.k.a. the Anti-Christ) is really a woman! Yes, a woman! But who is that woman? And can the prophecies in the book of Revelation still be relevant to our world today?

Said J. Philip Newman concerning the universal importance of prophecy, “The Scottish Highlander relies on his “second-sight,” the native North American indian on his dreamer, the Laplander on his sorcerer, and the African on his obeah men and women. The most polished peoples of antiquity... confided in the oracular utterances of their sibyls.... men have... studied all the phenomena of nature to ascertain the future. This universal desire supposes a latent belief in the human mind in the possibility of prophecy.”

In this second volume to Book 1, “Anti-Christ Is a Woman,” P.D. Stuart does not spare his pen, but reveals it all!

And to those who may think him too direct and harsh in his commentaries, he says, as did William Lloyd Garrison:

*“I will be as harsh as truth, and as uncompromising as justice.
On this subject I do not wish to think, or speak, or write, with moderation.
No! No! Tell a man whose house is on fire to give a moderate alarm;
tell him to moderately rescue his wife from the hands of the ravisher;
tell the mother to gradually extricate her babe from the fire into which it has fallen.
—but urge me not to use moderation in a cause like the present... —THE APATHY OF THE PEOPLE
IS ENOUGH TO MAKE EVERY STATUE LEAP FROM ITS PEDESTAL, AND TO HASTEN THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD!”*
